Contact your Veterinarian: Please contact your primary veterinarian to discuss whether your pet is healthy enough to board. Should your pet become ill or show signs of stress and discomfort that are detrimental to their overall health, a plan should be in place in the event that your pet cannot finish their stay. Boarding at a veterinary clinic with around-the-clock care may be in their best interest.

In the event that your pet requires medical attention, every effort will be made to reach out to you to discuss options for care. If you are unreachable, we will reach out your emergency contact to work with them.

If we cannot reach you by your provided phone numbers, please designate a trusted family member or friend that will be in town to act on your behalf to make any medical decisions.

Please read carefully and Initial on each line

_____ I understand that Montrose Pet Hotel is not staffed 24-hours per day and thus is not suitable for pets in need of intensive care.

_____ I understand that due to my pet's health concerns or because they are over the age of 10, Montrose Pet Hotel's ability to board and care for my pet's needs may vary seasonally (during high volume times and holidays)

_____ I understand that Montrose Pet Hotel takes into consideration my pet's ease of mobility, demeanor, appetite, stress levels, bathroom habits (incontinence, etc.), and willingness to receive medication. The kennel manager/owner may decide during my pet's stay that they are no longer suitable for boarding with us. A pet-sitter, veterinarian or alternate arrangement will be made in my pet's best interest in the case that my pet is not boarding well.

_____ I have contacted my veterinarian and put a plan in place if I am unreachable and my pet needs to be treated while I am out of town.
